

Steven Lockwood

Steven Lockwood is a very experienced teacher of English. He has a degree in English, a masters degree in Linguistics and he has a wealth of experience as an examiner, having worked for various examination boards over many years. Steve's roles in the college are as Curriculum Leader for GCSE English and teacher of A Level English Language. He is married with one daughter and enjoys playing sport in his free time.