

Jason is a team member in the Food and Beverages department at Marriot Hotel.

At first, he found it challenging to make the different types of coffee drinks that the hotel guests wanted to have. Also, he struggled with keeping up with a high volume of orders.

“My mentors Sophie and Sameer have trained me on how to handle guests’ queries.”

“I have also had their help with learning how to check the temperature on the fridge. Not to forget, I can now make hot drinks such as lattes, Americanos and cappuccinos.”

Jason can carry out floor checks by himself. He knows the art of setting the tables for lunch and dinner service.

He can book his own taxi every Friday and he feels confident to travel on public transport such as the bus from the hotel, back to home.
