...this Spring Term 2026

and don't panic

you have all your dates in your phone!

- Have you got all your equipment?
- Rooms check?
- Seating check?
- Time check?

Be exam ready! Give yourself the best start and don't panic

- Get to your exam at least 10 mins early! Don't be late.
- You must listen to, and follow, all instructions that the invigilators give you .
- Mobile phones need to be away and on silent.
- It is very important that Exam conditions are respected! Everyone deserves the right to start on time, be able to focus in silence and finish their exam with no interruptions.

(Students who intentionally disrupt exams, by not following the Invigilators instructions, may be asked to leave the exam.)

Is Your Work Good To Go?

For each piece of work which is in the form of a written report, you need to ensure that you have quality checked it for the following:

- ☐ Include headings and subheadings.
- ☐ Include page numbers in the footer of the document. (This should appear on all pages).
- ☐ Include your full name and student number in the header of the document.
- ☐ Ensure that the normal text is in Arial and in size 11 maximum.
- ☐ Rectify your spelling and grammatical errors before submitting your work.
- ☐ All text should be written in meaningful and logical paragraphs.
- ☐ The report should be flowing in terms of its structure and meet the assignment criteria.
- ☐ Check that you have included your references.
- ☐ Any guidance or scaffolding should be removed (this is often shown in Purple on masters and templates).

Failure to meet any of these criteria will result in your work not being accepted for marking/assessment. We are supporting you in ensuring that you complete and submit work with pride, care and attention.

20% Is the Similarity Limit.
This is not a target!

I know I can Communicate effectively

I know I can Act with Integrity

If your work has not met the criteria on this list, do not expect that your teacher will accept it.

Take pride in what you are producing and submitting.

What does your submission say about you?
